4) The financial condition of the Agyampet Minor Mlty for 1947-48 is as follows -

Opening Balance	Rs 6,450/-
Receipts	" 11,579/-
Total	" 18,029/
Expenditure	" 12,975/.
Closing Balance	" 5,054/-

5) It is stated that a sum of Rs 343-14-0 is being realised every year as lighting cess at the rate of 0-2-0 per Rupee on House & Land Tax in Agyampet Mlty against Rs 945-0-0 spent by the Mlty towards lighting thus the expenditure is more than the income realised in this behalf.

6) With a view to improve the poor finances ~~of the Mlty~~, the Mlty has proposed to enhance the levy of lighting cess from 2 annas to four annas in the rupee with effect from 1947-48 by this an extra income of about Rs 350/- per annum is expected. As laid down in Section 61(1)c of the Minor Municipalities Act & Rules regulating taxation, the Mlty is empowered to levy the tax referred to consistent with the Rules

7) It is also stated that necessary action as laid down in the Rules for taxation has already been taken and that 3 lights

Levy of lighting cess at the 6706 MS 0-4-0 instead of 0-2-0 as have already been installed against 8 proposed to be installed.

8) Duties for orders

8/26/4/48 9) The new rate of 0-4-0 is also within the maximum limit prescribed in the rules relating to taxation in Minor Municipalities (ie one third of the rate based on buildings and lands).

For 27.5.48 10) The proposal of the Assessment Board to increase the lighting tax from 2 as to 4 as in the rupee of the taxable lands & buildings may be sanctioned with effect from 1948. The Chairman recommends taxation which cannot however have retrospective effect for 1947-48.

Sir,

Subject - Enhancing the levy of lighting cess in Ajjampur Municipality from 0-2-0 to 0-4-0 with effect from 1947-48

In forwarding herewith the file of correspondence ending with Memo.No M1 34/47-48 dated 7th February 1948 from the Sub Division Officer, Tarikere, I have the honour to state that the Ajjampur Minor Municipal Council have resolved on 22nd November 1947 to enhance the present rate of levy of lighting cess in their Municipality from 0-2-0 to 4 as to improve their income The total realisations at 0-2-0 per rupee on house and land tax per annum were Rs 343-14-0, the expenditure towards lighting being Rs 945/- per annum It is proposed by the Municipal Council to provide some more lights in addition to those already installed An extra income of about Rs 350/- per annum is expected by the proposed enhanced rates

Objections were called for by the Council in accordance with the rules for the taxation in Minor Municipalities. No objections having been received in regard to the proposed enhancement of rates of lighting cess, it was decided by the Municipal Council on 29th December 1947 that the enhanced rates should be adopted

In the above circumstances, I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the above proposal and communicate the same at an early date

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Ko Ramanaiya
Deputy Commissioner,
Chickmagalur District
